

The Military Intelligence Museum

Mission 1:
Word search

Spy Fact File

There have been many brave and talented people who have worked as spies for Britain!
Here are some of our favourites.

Noor Inayat Khan

Noor was the first female radio operator to be sent into occupied France to aid French resistance during the Second World War.

Sidney George Reilly

Sidney was the inspiration for the character of James Bond in the novels written by Ian Fleming.

Airey Neave

Airey escaped from Colditz, a high-security Nazi prison, by disguising himself as a German officer.

Nancy Wake

The German secret police called Nancy the 'White Mouse' because they could never catch her!

You'll need a keen eye for this word search... Hidden in this puzzle are words about spy hunting, which is also known as 'counter-intelligence'. See if you can catch them!

E S C A P E T Q E N F J T H D
H Z C E Z N Q G Y I S I L T T
S I I Q E R A E Q O N W J Z C
T L D G J N N N V T V Q U N E
S A A E O G T E E R I N U W G
C K I I U I E R W Z E S I Z A
K T P S S H R F D O Z S I E T
M S F X P O C X I T L G B E O
E T P Y G L E H S F B L C O B
V X N A P O S F G V K P O Z A
K D T D H S B H U R C H O F S
C E E C N A L L I E V R U S K
A H E L W V N N S Z Y B U G R
R O T N I R P R E G N I F F S
T A K C M R O W U H N K H G B

Hide

Agent

Spy

Disguise

Bug

Secret

Interrogate

Surveillance

Espionage

Fingerprint

Observe

Escape

Follow

Track

Sabotage

